

SLASHES HIS WIFE; LEAVES HER TO DIE IN BROOKLYN STREET

Giordana Lombardo at Last Carries Out Threat to Kill the Woman.

The end of five years of haunting terror came today to Mariano Lombardo as she had feared—by death. Her husband, Giordana Lombardo, caught her late last night in dark Fifty-eighth street, in Brooklyn, stabbed her in the breast and shoulder and ran away, leaving her to die a few minutes after midnight in the Norwegian Hospital.

Time and time again the woman who met her end this morning had looked at death in the hands of her husband. It had been his practice, when fired with wine, to lock her in her room and allow her to watch him sharpening a knife with which he swore he would cut her head from her shoulders. Each time before last night the woman had managed to bear successfully for her life and she had continued to forgive her husband, even though dreading the inevitable end.

Mariano Mangioli and Giordana Lombardo were sweethearts in Palermo, Italy, when they were children, and fifteen years ago they married. A few years after their marriage Lombardo was sentenced to spend five years in prison for stabbing a man. After he had gone behind the bars his wife, determined to forget him, came to this country, believing herself secure from pursuit when he was released.

But when he was released from prison Lombardo managed to evade the immigration authorities in New York and he set himself to find his wife. Once finding her he pursued her for more than a year with supplications that he be taken back. Finally, against her better judgment, she consented and then began her life of constant terror which ended so miserably last night. Five times she left him after he had waved knives and revolvers before her eyes. Five times she forgave him and consented to live with him. As a dressmaker she was making a good salary and Lombardo wanted money more than he did his wife's love. Yesterday his wife consented to make an appointment to meet her husband after she had left him for the sixth time, but she grew terrified again and decided not to keep the engagement.

Instead she left her work at a Broadway women's tailoring establishment and started for her mother's home at No. 1052 Fifty-eighth street, Brooklyn. When she got off the Sea Beach train at Fifty-eighth street and started to walk down the dark street the woman felt the presence of danger. She looked over her shoulder and saw her husband running toward her. She ran, but he caught her and plunged a stiletto again and again into her body. Though several witnesses from the train saw the tragedy none dared interfere, and Lombardo disappeared, unpursued.

PIMPLES ON BODY ITCHED TERRIBLY

Broke Out Like Little Red Spots. Also on Face. Disfiguring, also Painful. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Skin Now Clear.

80 Raperly St., Brooklyn, N. Y.—"About four months ago pimples broke out on my forehead which pained me very much. They broke out like little red spots. From red the yellow heads came out on them and they pained terribly. I began scratching them and within two weeks my face was entirely filled with pimples and blackheads. After a while they came all over my body and itched terribly and when I would scratch them they would bleed. They were not only disfiguring but also painful. I was ashamed to walk on the street."

"I soon became discouraged. I read of Cuticura Soap and Ointment in the paper and sent for a sample which I used. The way I used the Cuticura Soap and Ointment was by putting Cuticura Ointment on the pimples with my finger and let it stay on for five minutes and then wash it off with Cuticura Soap and tepid water three times a day. After using two cakes of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment in removed every pimple and blackhead in sight. Now my skin is clear and healthy." (Signed) Andrew Benvenuto, Nov. 8, 1912. A single cake of Cuticura Soap (25c.) and box of Cuticura Ointment (50c.) are often sufficient when all else has failed. Sold throughout the world. Sample of each mailed free, with 25-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."
